Little Class

big victory

Spirit week: a suspenseful five day countdown to homecoming, the school week where the staff and students dress up, down, and even backwards to prove who has more Mariner pride. Each class and the teachers compete for the title of the winner of spirit week by wearing certain apparel on certain days. This year the Freshmen took home the most spirited title with the Juniors in second, Seniors in third, Sophomores in fourth, and teachers in last.

After the assembly at the end of the week, the Senior's enthusiasm bumped them up to second place, but the rest remained the same.

To start out the week was the easiest day of them all, Pajama Day, where all we had to do was wake up and come to school. Tuesday was Fashion Disaster Day when it looked like everyone got ready for school in the dark. On Wednesday it was Hat and Sunglasses Day, with lids from baseball caps and beanies, to sombreros and pirate hats. Thursday was the traditional Senior Toga Day, while the Seniors wore their ancient apparel the underclassmen sported their class colors. On Friday everyone showed their Mariner spirit by wearing black and orange.

With other spirit weeks in our past and future, this will surely be one that will stand out and make us take a closer look.

Top: Catching everyone's eye with their messed up wardrobes on Fashion Disaster Day are Lauren Auers, Angie Kovalcik, and Ashley Adams.

Below: Giving their approval on Spirit Week is Jeremy Rittenhouse and Michael Becker.

What was your favorite Spirit Week day?

Courtney Manter: "Hat and Sunglasses Day because our gang got to wear our hats. 99 represent!!!"

Kelly Rons: "Fashion Disaster Day because I got to express my true inner self."

Charles Alongi: "Hat and Sunglasses day because my hat was the sweetest."

Juniors

are #1

The Great Wall of China has crumbled. The Eiffel Tower has rusted all apart. The Great Pyramids have finally succumbed to the sands of the desert. The only float left standing was Niagara Falls, or the Junior Float.

This year the Judges were stunned not by the Senior's Float, but by the Junior's Niagara Falls, which came out on top of the competition. Riding on top of the the Junior's Niagara Falls was the famous Mariner boat that is present at every football game. Most impressively was that the float actually had a waterfall, which is more than likely what won them the contest. It truly was Niagara Falls.

Finishing a disappointing second this year were the Seniors, who built the Great Wall of China. The Great Wall had Mariner football players crashing through it and chasing a puny Lakeview football player. Along with the wall, a large Mariner football player accompanied the float.

Finishing third this year were the Freshmen who built the Great Pyramids. Riding along on the float with the Great Pyramids was a massive Mariner football player along with a small Lakeview player. Overall the Freshman float was pretty impressive and all of the effort put into it really showed.

Finishing last this year was the Sophomores who built the Eiffel Tower. The main feature of the Sophomore float was the large Eiffel Tower. Along with the Eiffel Tower was a small Mariner football player and a Lakeview dog. Well, better luck next year for the underclassmen.

1: Getting stuck with the good job is Aubry Zimmerman as she staples another bow onto the Sophomores Eiffel Tower.

2: Caught off guard is Katy Dupre with the unfinished Lakeview football player on her head. Maybe this is why the Seniors didn't win float building?

3: Working on the second place float, Great Wall of China is the beautiful Sarah Phelps and lovely Kayla Emery.

4: Struggling to staple fake grass to the Junior float is Matt Schindler and Louie Letorneau.

5: Obviously a lot of thought went into making the bows for the Sophomore float. As Georgia Dewey clearly shows.

6: The mastermind behind the plumbing for this year's winning float is Junior Jason Bell.

7: Hard at work on the third place Freshmen float is Christy Lake, Riley Bradley, and Ashley Adams as they puts the finishing touches on a massive Lakeview player.

8: Putting the last touches on a Lakeview football player is Elizabeth Awe.

9: Tying bows for the Sophomore Eiffel Tower float is Lindsay Ostin.

Best Yet

pep assembly

Instead of going to class when the bell rang for 6th hour, students piled into the gymnasium for this year's homecoming pep-assembly. The Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors all went to their designated bleachers. One obvious difference this year was that the band wasn't in the stands with their instruments. This year student government hired a professional DJ! This time the band members had the opportunity to sit with their classes and participate in the games. The stage was wonderfully decorated for the homecoming court according to the "Famous Places Around the World". Everyone cheered for their class princes, princesses, and of course the king and queen, as they gracefully walked across the gym floor.

After the coronation of the court came the best part of the assembly, "Let the games begin!" The first game was the famous end-zone dance. We all watched and laughed as a girl and boy from each class shook their grove thing on the floor. Nobody could even compete with Seniors Donnie Dewey and Heather Harbough. They easily took first place and got the crowd ready for more games. Next was the football pass and the caterpillar crawl. Last but not least the tug-o-war. The Seniors were off to a good start when they beat the Juniors, but they came up short when it was time to take on the Sophomores. For the second year in a row the class of 2006 has been victorious in the tug-o-war. Overall the pep-assembly was a great success. Student government recieved many compliments for a job well done. We can all agree that the 2003 homecoming pep-assembly was the best yet.

Right: It's a wonder where Senior Donnie Dewey learned how to dance but he sure did a great job during the endzone dance. Go Donnie, Go Donnie!

Left: It's obvious why the Seniors got best spirit at the pep assembly. Look how many of them are cheering!

Below: It's not what it looks like! Libby Schneider and Paul Gale are actually doing the football pass while their classmates cheer them on.

The air was full of anticipation as the names of the 2003 Homecoming Court were announced. The crowd grew silent after each name was called, and then went into another uproar as each person walked to the front of the gymnasium. For those of us who won, it was a nerve-racking, yet wonderful experience all at the same time. Not only did we have the title of prince, princess, king, or queen, but we also went through the heart throbbing experience of walking in front of the student and staff body during the coronation assembly. We were called to kneel on a red velvet pillow and receive a dazzling tiara or sash, save one junior prince, Kieth Cherluck, who couldn't kneel due to a knee injury.

The assembly continued as we sat and observed the hilarious end zone dances, the tug-o-war, and all the other games that the assembly incorporated. The best part, needless to say, was when we all received the opportunity to prove our elegance and sophistication by doing the chicken dance. Later in the day during the parade, the rest of the court and I had the pleasure of riding in glamorous convertibles, showing our nobility as we attempted to wave like Kings and Queens (an attempt that failed for most of us). After the parade, we became the center of attention at the Homecoming Game, when each couple took their turn walking down the middle of the field as the band played "Unchained Melody". After this, our only other responsibility was the homecoming dance, where we had to dance with our prince, princess, king or queen and have, once again, all eyes on us. I happened to be slightly late, leaving Steve Tranchemontagne to dance with himself, however I entered fashionably 20 seconds later to be swept off my feet by Steve's remarkable dancing skills. It was a wonderful experience for all of us who had the honor of being a member of the court, and to be given, from our fellow classmates the opportunity to act as royalty. Nevertheless, these memories will not be soon forgotten.

Remember

homecoming 2003

Where can you go to be at more than one place at a time? The Marine City High School homecoming dance of 2003! From the Freshmen winning Spirit Week to the Boys Varsity Football's shutout against Lakeview, the dance was the last anticipated event of the week. This year's theme was "Famous places around the world." Student Government did a great job of decorating the gym with the Eiffel Tower, Great Wall of China, and Stonehenge.

The night of October 11th everyone was all dressed up and ready to dance. The D.J. played great music that kept everyone dancing all night. Smiles and laughs could be seen everywhere. Pictures were being taken with friends to remember this night in years to come. When it came time for everyone to step aside and allow the Court their dance, cheers could be heard for this year's winners.

This year's homecoming was extra special for this year's Seniors, only because it was their last. The Senior circle will be one of the last times the entire class will be together. It will remain one of their best memories of homecoming. The night could have gone on forever, but was over only too soon. Everyone walked away with sore feet and tons of memories to last them a lifetime.

Seniors Win again

Tradition has it that the Seniors always win the Junior vs. Senior PowderPuff game. Once again tradition proved victorious. All the girls who participated were pumped up all week. Days prior to the big game the Seniors gave their annual "We'll kick your butt" poem over the PA. For the first year ever the Seniors included every player's name in the poem. And of course, the next day the Juniors came up with their own poem that included all of their players' names. Overall the game was a huge success. A huge crowd came to the Ward Cottrell field to support their girls. But it wasn't just the girls that people came to watch. There were also the Varsity Football players who were the cheerleaders that people came to see. This year's group of guys was obviously led by Tom Loewer who went all out and actually wore a cheerleader's practice uniform, which we all can agree was a little tight!

The score was close throughout the whole game. The Seniors showed great skill and scored the first two touchdowns. Then the referees allowed the Juniors to score their first, while the Seniors were still in their time-out huddle. Of course the Seniors won and the final score was 24-18. Afterwards, students attended the annual bon fire, which was also a huge success. Everybody that was at this year's powder puff game had fun whether they were playing, cheerleading, or in the stands.

Winterfest

Spirit Week

From wacky plaid and strips to orange and black, Winterfest's Spirit Week gave the students time to show their creativity. A week of competition between the classes and teachers for school spirit started Monday with Plaid and Stripe day. Students wore their favorite plaid clothing and exotically stripped outfits. DJ McKellar and Aaron Herman proudly displayed their gender switch for Tuesday's Backward's Day. They wore girls' jeans and a women's skirt. Wednesday being Hat or Hawaiian Day allowed the students to wear their much-loved hats and hawaiian skirts. David Steier, James Christie, Allen Ewert and Paul Gale sported their favorite hats all day in their own rendition of "Gangsta day!" On Thursday's Team Sports day, everyone wore their favorite team's jersey and many of the students even wore their own personal sports jerseys. Finally, the good old Black and Orange Day made Friday a very colorful day. The students wore black and orange on their pants and shirts along with many other objects such as their shoes, socks and accesories. Everyone was so caught up in the excitement that by the end of the week no one truly knows who won Spirit Week. All and all the week was full of supprises that many of the students will remember for years to come.

Winterfest

Pep-Assembly

This is what students of Marine City High School wait for all year. The tug-a-war championship. It comes down to the Freshmen and the Juniors. It's close, but the Juniors start to pull away, its over, Juniors win and the excitement fills the gym.

The pep-assembly is what everyone looks forward to all week. This years pep-assembly was filled with many new and exciting games. the entire student body enjoyed bouncing beachballs around between games, while limbo was raised to new heights. The pantys hose race started off this years events. Four people raced across the gym with one leg in the pany hose. The Juniors came out victorious by crashing over the finish line.

On Friday the 13th, the Winterfest king and queen were announced at the pep assembly. The whole student body waited in anticipation as president of the student government, Taryn Weil, announced that Kelly Zohr and Dan Rons were this years King and Queen.

After all the games were done, everyone was pumped up for the big basketball game that night. The Mariners pounced Centerline with a score of 76-54.

Top: Trying hard to win the basketball pass are Seniors Tom Lower, Eric Moody, and Stacey Stevens.

Bottom: Struggling to get his leg in to his panty hose is Sophomore Josh Prange. Teammates Chrystal Raymond and James Christe urge Josh to go faster.

"I really liked Winterfest. Also the theme 'decades' was good and the costume contest and little 'show' on stage was funny. I like the fact that you have to dress up because that makes its kind of special. Winterfest, as well as Homecoming, was a new experience for me. We dont have have those kinds of things at German schools. I really enjoyed myself and had fun dancing."

Winterfest

Dynamic Decades

1960's

After the initial nominations took place and the school found out the candidates for each grade, we voted a second time to decide the 2004 Winterfest Court; that is except for the King and Queen. There were three gentleman and three ladies selected for Senior Class, however, only two would become the traditional King and Queen. After much anticipation the King and Queen position were eventually revealed at the Winterfest Assembly, where each member of the court was specially honored. Each class' winners had a chance to walk down the gym in front of the student body and staff while a brief explanation of their hobbies and interest were introduced to honor their involvement and to recognize their court positions. It was after the court was seated in their toyal thrones a.k.a (red school chairs), that the King and Queen were announced. And the winners are... "Drum roll please"... King Daniel Rons and Queen Kelly Zohr. After the court was recognized, the general Winterfest Festivities continued with the customary assembly on Friday, and then the Decades Dance on Saturday, where the court had one last chance to reign in their glory while "waltzing" with their partners. All of the student who won deserved the title given to them, as well as the perks that go with such prestigious position. Congratulations to all of you!

Queen Kelly Zohr & King Dan Rons

Time Warp

Winterfest 2004

The hallways were decorated with old records and juke-boxes. The gym was decorated with tie-die and lights. People filled the school dressed in poodle skirts, tight bellbottoms, and big hair. Every outrageous outfit from any of the well-known decades made an appearance at the dance. This year's theme for Winterfest was decades. Students came dressed from the 50's in poodle skirts, 60's in tie-die, 70's in bellbottoms, 80's with big hair and tight jeans, 90's as old school rappers, and some even came dressed for the modern decade. There were even some appearances from some famous music groups. Two members from KISS showed up at the dance and best of all were the Village People. The Village People surprised the whole school with a choreographed dance to their most favorite song "YMCA". Most would agree that it was the highlight of the night. Along with that, the DJ played great songs. He played the old and new. When students wanted to take a break from getting busy on the dance floor they could sit down and relax in the 50's Diner, better known to students as the activity center. The annual costume contest was also held and Senior Brad Maggetti won with a strong finish with his rendition of Tom Cruise from Risky Business, white tighties and all! Senior Mike Bradford came in second in his costume as a nerd from "Revenge of the Nerds". This year's Winterfest was a great success and all that attended had a "groovy" time.

Above: Billy Kucharski and Tony Roberts - or KISS? It's pretty hard to tell, these boys did a great job with their costumes!

Right: You can hardly tell that these Village People aren't the real deal. These senior guys did a great job of pulling off their costumes as the Village People. Mike Becker is the Cowboy, Ryan Falcheck is the Police Officer, Jeremy Rittenhouse is the Sailor, Eric Moody is the Construction Worker, Rich Toles is the Indian, and Mike Kasper is the Biker Dude.

Powderpuff Volleyball

1.2.3 Team! Add a little shake of the butt and you've got one of the best volleyball lineups ever to play at Marine City. Starting in this line-up was Ryan "Fro-izzo" Pizzo, Don "One 'n Done" Dewey, John "Victoria, shh It's A Secret" Kane, Ben "The Punisher" Pauli, Joe "No Name Just Game" Schneider, and James "Jimmy Oso" Gale. The Senior boys were coached by Mandy Mazur, Leigh Christie, Katy Dupre and Natasha Faucher. While the Junior boys were coached by Ami Moeller, Jackie Gross, Stacey Stackpoole, Lauren Warkentien, and Kelly Griffor. The referee for the game was Mr. Miller, who obviously needed to get his eyes checked because some of his calls were a little questionable.

Putting up little fight in the first game was the Juniors as they were dominated by the Seniors 20-15. After coming alive in the second game the Juniors took an early and dominating lead over the Seniors until the amazing first line of the Seniors came in and scored eight points in a row to win the game 20-16. Rebounding from their two loses and not about to be swept by the Seniors, the Juniors rallied and came back to defeat the Seniors 20-18. Of course they had a little help from the referee, Mr. Miller. The Juniors came into game four confident and sensing a momentum change in their favor helped them get off to a quick start. Then in the closing points of the game the Seniors rallied under the leadership of the nights MVP, Ryan Falchek, as he scored the winning point to give the Seniors the 20-18 victory over the Juniors and winning the series 3-1.

On the lighter side the game did raise $100 and also collected 250 cans for the local food pantry.

FASHION Forward

On the memorable night of March 17th, the Mariner models let loose on the runway. Many of the members of the Senior class took a stroll down the catwalk showing off some fancy new prom attire. Everyone looked flashy all dressed up for the evening, especially Natasha Faucher in her pretty pink sequined gown. With Bradley Maggetti as the master of ceremonies there is no way that it could go wrong. Everyone had a great time, especially the fun-loving fems in formals. It was a magical evening full of Men In Black and fairy tale characters.

The entertainment for the show included a theatrical performance of the popular tale of a kind-hearted beast named Shrek. Rusty Potts gave a terrifying rendition of the green-faced ogar himself. With his trusty donkey by his side, played by Mike Becker, and his Princess Fionna in his arms, played by Amber McLane, the audience discovered that he was truly a prince at heart. Altogether the fashion show was a huge success.

Not only did it include a bunch of beauties and beast but also a showcase of talent. The well-known singing sensation, Five Sharps and a Flat performed a couple of songs, a band featuring Charles Alongi, the Cherluck brothers, and the vocal stylings of Leah Numbers rocked out, and Megan Gross sang along to Leah also tickling the ivories. It was a night full of drama, excitement, and fun as the many Mariners stepped out onto the stage, showing everyone that we not only have style and penash, but are most certainly fashion forward.

Student Life

Mariner Drama

The Death of King Arthur

The audience grows silent as St. Clair Auditorium's lights grow dim. Suddenly a bright white spotlight falls on a small boy, who swiftly pulls a shimmering sword from a large stone. The spotlight grows dim...the audience is engulfed in darkness... The Death of King Arthur begins. The Death of King Arthur nationally premiered on October 17th and 18th. Mariner Drama raised the bar once more with its superb cast and crew. The leads included Ryan Falchek as Arthur, Sarah Phelps as Guenevere, Brad Maggetti as Lancelot, and Denver Surgener as Mordred, all of them did an excellent job. The talented actors/actresses, outstanding sets, and intriguing music and special effects created an intense atmosphere that created two jaw-droppin nights. The audience was in a tumult of applause throughout the majority of the play as Mariner Drama wooed them with an outstanding performance of love, infidelity, darkness and heartbreak. Practically sold out Friday night, Mr. McCullough agrees that the success of this play was due to the intense effort and teamwork that the cast, crew, and parents displayed throughout the practices and tech-weeks. They all worked very hard to create an accurate portrayal of the emotions and moods that were present in this production. This intense play surely will result in great memories, not only for those who worked hard to put it on, but for all those who were able to experience it. The Death of King Arthur is an experience that brings students closer together through the teamwork and time that goes into a production, it teaches students how to deal with adversity, as each play incorporates people, as Mr. McCullough says, "From all walks of life." Nevertheless, it has proven to be one of the best performances of the year, and will go down as yet another success in MCHS's history.

Lower left: "It feels like fire!" Denver expresses his feelings towards his aunt/ mother Jaime Dunsmore as she puts a cream on him to heal his wounds.

Upper right: Taking a break are Katy Dupre, Stacey Stevens, Jessica Gadawski, Melena Felbarth, and Michelle Biewer huddle together to do homework until they are needed on stage.

Lower right: The crew or "Mortar" huddle together after working extremely hard to create the Forest of Gore and many other intricate sets.

Drama

Holiday Spirit

Complete darkness as the audience hears screaming behind closed doors. Suddenly Christina Rick and Cory Rice burst out the doors yelling about the attack of the holiday ads. Hideous Christmas jingles fill the air ... Uh Oh here Comes Christmas. This years winter play was performed with an amazing cast. Drama director, Mr. McCulloch even was seen on stage this year. No one will forget the last performance in the St. Clair Auditorium on the weekend of December 12th and 13th 2003. Many of this years skits will live on in everyones memories for years to come. Who will forget Justine Beauvais telling everyone that she picks her nose and wipes it on the carpet? Not the cast or anyone who attended the play. Or what about children running to the stage to see Santa Claus at the very end? The memories we make with the people we love will last in our minds forever. Even after the audience is gone and the lights are turned out. After we leave this school we leave with the memories to make us smile for long times to come.

Below Left: Enjoying putting on his Santa Claus outfit is Brad Maggetti while Ryan Falcheck prances in, wearing his nifty elf costume.

Below Right: "Bridget, put your mittens back on!" exclaims Noel Rivard to Mara Pace before going on their Christmas Tree outing.

Upmost: "MOVE YOUR @$$!" screams Brad Maggetti to the unsuspected crowd.

Upper: With out the expertise of the fantastic A.V. crew this years production would have lacked the wonderous sounds of earthquakes, explosions, and farts.

Right: Emerging out of the refridgerator for a mid-night snack is Brad Maggetti and his piece of limp celery.

Left: STOP! In the name of love before you break Janine Jenken and Sarah Phelps' hearts.

MC Sirens

Far Right: Courtney Johnson looks cool doing her impression of the "Fresh Prince of Bel Air".

The MC Sirens were created out of the concept of showcasing MCHS dance talents for the Fall Rally which would not otherwise be seen. All dancers have previous dance studio experience and were very excited about the opportunity to display their skills for an audience of peers. The girls put in many long and hard hours at practice to get their routines just right. They performed not only at the Fall Rally, but they were involved in the Mariner Drama Christmas play "Uh Oh, Here Comes Christmas," performed at the Festival of Trees in Port Huron, and also at the MCHS Winterfest Pep Assembly. They will be dancing at the Performing Arts Festival in the spring. The team consists of Jessica Gadawski, Taryn Weil, Amanda Adwell, Shawna Nylund, Amanda Furtah, Jessica Messer, Courtney Johnson, Sylvia Hamara, Janine Jenkin and Andrea Spiekout. The girls look forward to performing much more in the future!

Left: The team shows off their flexibility and extension with their high kicks. Get those legs up there girls!

Within the halls of Marine City High School is a group of people that often times goes unnoticed. They are the members of the Ecology Club. These kind planeteeers are most often seen ducking in and out of classrooms emptying recycle bins that our staff kindly fills. They busy themselves recycling paper throughtout the school year, though they do much more than that. This group of Mariners has many plans for the ways in which they can further help out our local community and environment. In the spring, they plan to team up the National Honor Society and assist in collecting items for the St. Clair Huname Society. These items will then go on to be put to good use. The students will also be working with local adults to clean up streams in St. Clair County. They have been doing a fine job working for the good of the evironment that we live in. Though this team isn't just all about work. They have recently taken a trip, spending time at Independence County Park. There they learned how to snowshoe and got to spend some time in the great outdoors. It doesn't really matter whether they are out hiking in the woods or walking down the school halls, they are always there and willing to lend a helping hand.

MARINE CITY H.S. MARINER MARCHING BAND

"Go Black!," yells the MCHS Marching Band in response to the Drum Major command, "Band Ten Hut!". The Marching Band combines incredible music articulation with precision marching to create this years half-time show, "The West Side Story". The preparations began way back in July, when the band attended Central Michigan to start the hard and tedious process of learning each note of music and each marching set. During the process of the year the band attended many events, including The Harper Woods Band-O-Rama, served as a pep band at home football games, and as the rhythmic heart and soul of each of the three parades. Among their accomplishments this year are a Second Division in the Annual MSBOA District 16. The Drumline also served as the leader of the International River Crossing Parade of Banners in Sombra, Canada for the Girl Scouts. Combine each individual's talent and skill with Mr. Decker's conducting ability, and you are left with the music that we hear throughout the year, but combine the teamwork and dedication of each member, and you are left with a band: The Marine City Marching Band.

What is the best aspect of Marching Band?

*Drum Major
Tiffany Glasgow*

"It gives you the great opportunity to meet new people, make new friends, and express your individuality."

*Drum Major
Brad Maggetti*

"Watching all the different individuals bond together to from one group with a common purpose, and that is to win."

*Field Captain
Amanda Vintevoghel*

"Watching the whole show progress from the beginning of band camp all the way up until festival."

Treble Choir has had a great year this year. The forty girls a part of this group were very close. Everyday during school they would get together and sing songs and have tons of fun with each other. Many of the girls took the trip up to New York City to sing at Carnegie Hall along with many other schools. The returning group can't wait until next year where they get to start all over again with new songs.

Concert Choir has sixty-three members that all love being apart of choir. Most of them are looking forward to being apart of Choral, and Treble Choir. Concert Choir spends one hour everyday working on their songs and performance. They put on a few great shows this fall, winter, and spring. Members cannot wait until next year so they can do it again. Mr. Van Dyke does a great job on getting all sixty-three students ready for their excellent shows.

Chorale

A Variety of Vocalists

Chorale is special in that they are an auditioned singing group of mixed voices. Out of all the choirs, they are the ones who do the most performing. Mostly upperclassmen, they are serious and dedicated to performing, not only as singers, but as entertainers. Their activities this year included the Fall Choir Concert, Chamber Chorale Festival, local caroling, the High school Winter Concert, Choir Festival, M.C. Scholarship Dinner, Spring Chorale Concert, and the annual performance at graduation. They also had the rare opportunity to perform at the prestigious Carnegie Hall in New York City, where most of the chorale and a selected few from other choirs went in December for an awe inspiring trip. They performed "Gloria", by John Rutter, which they also sang at the grand opening of the new Performing Arts Center. This year has really been successful for chorale, as they had a lot of great opportunities to showcase their outstanding singing abilities, and to display their sensational performances.

Ensemble

For Men

Mens Ensemble is made up of a variety of guys ranging from ninth to twelfth grade. They are divided into four different sections: Tenor 1, Tenor 2, Bass 1, and Bass 2. This ensemble is unique in that their designated rehearsal time is during ensemble hour (lunch time). They perform at many school functions and in doing so represent our school to the community. The guys always manage to bring a smile to everyone's face at the concerts, and add decoration to the music they sing. They not only sing, but they perform, which makes them a valuable asset to the vocal arts of Marine City.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society was a huge success this year under the new advisory of Mrs. Coverdill. This year's group of NHS members were led by the senior officers, president Kelly Zohr, vice-president Natasha Faucher, secretary Julie Warwick and treasurer Leigh Christie. The group wasted no time to get started this year. Right away members got started on activities such as teacher's birthdays and tutoring at the Marine City Public Library. For all the teacher's and staff's birthdays, NHS makes it their responsibility to make a birthday card for them and give them a balloon and some candy. Tutoring at the public library was also another successful activity. Throughout the school year on every Wednesday, National Honor Society members went and helped younger students with their school work. Another event that continued throughout the school year was making birthday cards for the residents at Mallards Landing.

National Honor Society was also very busy during the holidays. During Christmas time students helped out at the Festival of Trees. Another activity students participated in at Christmas time was making cookies for Mallards Landing. This year's annual Christmas can food drive was the most successful it has ever been, Marine City High School raised 2,793 cans. It took many volunteers to transfer all those cans from the class rooms to the cars!

As the end of the year approached new members were inducted into the National Honor Society at the annual Induction Ceremony. Every year NHS can look forward to inviting many new members that will make a difference in our school and our community. Keep up the good work.

Making The Difference

"This year in Student Government was the best year yet! Our membership grew immensely (to almost 100!) and I think our events went over with flying colors. Thank you to all of the members for all of their hard work and creativity (especially those long mornings before dances) and congratulations on a successful year!"

~Taryn Weil

The driving force behind Marine City High School is... Mr. Rood? I don't think so. How about Mr. Miller? Nope. What about Central Office? Are you kidding? The driving force behind Marine City High School is... Student Government?

Heading up Student Government is their President Taryn Weil. This year's Vice President is Mike Becker. Keeping track of what goes on during the meetings is Secretary Kelley Thueme. Handling all of the money for Student Government is this year's Treasurer Kelly Zohr.

Believe it or not, but Student Government actually started organizing functions before school started. Their school year started on August 14th with Freshmen Orientation. On August 20th the Student Government members helped teachers get organized and settle into their classrooms with Teacher Help Day.

One event that Student Government helps to organize every year is the Blood Drive. This year the Blood Drive collected 50 pints of blood to be donated to local hospitals. Like always the magic behind Homecoming was created and orchestrated by whom else, Student Government.

Another event put on by Student Government was the Staff vs. Student basketball game. An interesting twist to this year's game was instead of having to pay money to get in, you had to bring in three cans for the canned food drive. The class who brought in the most cans got a pizza party while the second place class got a donut party.

Other events that are on Student Government's list to organize are: Staff Appreciation Luncheon, Powderpuff Volleyball, the Fall Blood Drive, and Winterfest. Given the efficiency of Student Government, all of the events should turn out flawless.

Above: Talk about dedication. Megan Mills helps set up the rainforest decorations the morning of homecoming.

Staff Wins

Staff vs. Students

For the third year in a row the staff has taken on the seniors in an annual basketball game, and for the third year in a row the staff has been victorious. This year, the game was played during sixth hour and the entire school was invited to come and watch. But, there was one condition. Each class had to bring an average of three cans of food per person in order to be allowed to attend the game. The canned food was to be donated to the Marine City Old Newsboys for needy families. Almost every class was successful bringing in over 2,700 cans of food. The entire school went to the game.

As students filed into the gymnasium, the staff and students were warming up for the big game. Of course, during warm-ups, Mr. Daly had to show off his "mad" skills by dunking the ball numerous times. After warming up, the teams huddled up and reviewed their game plan. The staff's game plan was to pound the seniors from the inside using their enormous size as an advantage. The student's game plan was to run the teachers up and down the court in order to get them tired.

Finally, it was game time. The tip obviously went to Mr. Daly because he is 8 feet tall! The game was close from the very beginning. Every couple of minutes the momentum swung from the staff to the students and back to the staff. The staff and students played with a lot of intensity. It was evident when teachers were pushing students and students were tripping teachers. The final score of the game was 65-57. The staff had won again. The infamous Mr. Staskiewicz, used his wonderful coaching abilities to lead the staff to a victory. Overall, the game was fun for everyone. The students playing in the game had fun and everybody watching it had fun missing class. The game was a success and the students donated 2,700 cans of food to those who need it most.

Above: This is one tough looking group of basketball players! The seniors on the student team are ready to put on a good show for the school.

Above: The teachers are looking pretty worn out! Mr. Nesbitt and Mr. Glodich are catching their breath on the bleachers after the game.

Left: If there was an award for the most aggressive player of the game it would definitely go to Mr. Bobowski. Look how good his shooting form is as he shoots a free-throw.

Left: The students had a lot of fun watching the game during sixth hour this year. Jessica Snyder, Nicole Lubinski, and Katelyn Achatz show that they are huge Daly fans.

Bottom: Mr. Scarcelli has no idea what is going on! Cullen Chartier obviously has a speed advantage over him and he quickly steals the ball and goes up for a lay-up.

What was your favorite part of the game?

"My favorite part of the game was Coach Bob refereeing the game from the sideline and blowing his whistle."

~ Mrs. Kennedy

"My favorite part of the game was seeing Mr. Babowski run over Mallory Smith."

~ Zach Malarney

"My favorite part of the game was that it was a very close game. My least favorite part was that Natasha Faucher couldn't play!"

~ Mr. Daly

"My favorite part of the game was playing in front of the whole school and when I was guarding Mr. Daly and I didn't let him dunk!"

~ Richard Toles

Business Professionals

It's been a real pleasure serving as a Co-President for this year's Marine City chapter of Business Professionals of America. I've enjoyed working with a great group and it was nice to see everything come together. Joined with my second-hand-man, Mike Kasper, our wonderful Vice President and friend, Sarah Phelps, our amazing Secretary, Jessica Gadawski, Historian Danielle Keller, and Parliamentarian Shawna Nylund, we pulled together to try to create a fun year for our chapter members. However, the whole experience had a very interesting start. Some of our meetings were a little rough around the edges, but together we smoothed them out. In Mike's words, "It's been a rough journey, but things settled out in the end." We all worked as a team and got through regionals. It's a very nerve-wracking experience, sitting and waiting for the announcer to hopefully call out your name. When he does, it's the most amazing and exciting feeling to know that all your hard work and practice has finally paid off. Many of our members know that feeling, and have qualified for the state competitions. We are all now in fundraising mode, getting ready for Grand Rapids and New York. It's hard to believe that soon this year will be coming to a close. My friend Sarah says it best, "BPA is like fudge, mostly sweet with a few nuts!" True, things haven't always been a barrel of monkeys around here, but it sure has been a fun ride.

This is my first year being in BPA. I joined at first because a lot of my friends were in it. The competitions seemed hard, though they were actually easier and more fun than I thought. Regionals were exciting, because we won and I'm looking forward to going to States with my team.

~Kelly Kucharski

"This is my first year in BPA. My friend told me about it, so I decided to give it a whirl! Regionals were sweet. I competed with a web site development team. We took first place and are moving on to States. I am looking forward to that, and I'm planning to return next year.

"The past four years have flown by. It always seemed like it would never end, and now the end is so near. I have had a great time full of memories that will stay with me forever. I had a great time helping put all this year's memories into the yearbook, so everyone can remember all the great times we've had."

~ Mallory Smith

"Although the deadlines were hectic and much time was spent at school after hours, it was all worth it in the end- we made an awesome book! To my senior friends: these past two years have flown by, and I've enjoyed every minute of it with you. To the Sophomores and Juniors: good luck with the future books. I love you all!"

~Taryn Weil

"I've been in yearbook for the past two years, and I've had fun throughout those years creating memories and placing them onto the pages that we will someday look back on and laugh about. This senior year has been a blast. I've grown close to many friends, and will cherish these friendships forever. Good luck to next year's yearbook class."

~ Sarah Phelps

"Yearbook class was a lot of fun this year. I liked all the times we got to leave school to sell ads. I also enjoyed all the parties we've had throughout the years. Though, the best part of yearbook was getting to hang out with my friends in class when we didn't have any work to do. I've made a lot of memories here that I will always remember."

~ James Gale

"It's been awesome creating a memory book for myself and for all the other students here. I really enjoyed working with everyone in our class. This was my most memorable year of high school yet. I want to thank everyone that has made it the best ever."

~ Jeremy Rittenhouse

"My senior year was a blast, even though it flew by. A lot of true fun came from yearbook class: making animal cracker trains, gluing Jimmy Oso's folders together, messing up people's faces in Photoshop, and just acting crazy all the time. I want to thank everyone for an unforgettable year and good luck in the future."

~ Leigh Christie

"My senior year has been a blast, and I would never give it up for anything. All of the memories I have made with my friends here I will never forget. I have really enjoyed being in yearbook class too. I loved all of our parties we had and especially Mallory's cat poop cake. It was yummy!"

~ Natasha Faucher

"Man, what a great yearbook we made this year. This class was so great. I'm happy to be a part of it all. When I think about how great the book is going to be, I get all nervous and feel tingly all over."

~ Ryan Pizzo

"I've had a lot of fun this year working together with a great group. I will truly miss this place and everyone here, especially all of my friends, you know who you are. I wouldn't be who I am without you, and for that I would like to thank you. I will always remember all of our fun memories and you will always remain in my heart. I love you all."

White Out

Students Against Drunk Driving

SADD, or Students Against Drunk Driving is an active presence at Marine City High School. They are lead by co-advisors Vanessa Kerr and Patricia Allagreen. While SADD had many goals for the year, their priority was to increase awareness of the dangers of drinking and driving to students.

To achieve this goal, the SADD members carried out a number of activities. The first of these activities was a White Out Day, which was at the last five minutes of every hour a member of SADD would be "Whited Out." This meant that these students had been killed in a drunk driving accident and therefore they couldn't talk to anyone after they had been "Whited Out." Another activity that SADD members participated in was the homecoming parade. Members marched in the parade to help raise awareness. SADD also set up a display at the homecoming dance that had the effects of drunk driving on it.

Keeping the Christmas spirit alive was SADD who helped out local families who had lost a family member or been in an accident involving a drunk driver. SADD members also braved the cold and marched in the Marine City Christmas Parade. Finally, during Prom, SADD raffled off a free limo to help keep people from drinking and driving on Prom night. During the Prom assembly, co-advisor Patricia Allagreen gave a tearjerking speech about how drunk drivers have personally affected her life. SADD helped the students at Marine City High School make the right choice.

Truth

Teens Against Tobacco Use

Below: Joel Kellar, Jaime Dunsmore, and Alyssa Yeip wait in the cafeteria for the buses to arrive so they can go teach the hazards of smoking to elementary students.

T.A.T.U. has been in existence and active at MCHS since 1996. So far this fall the 51 students that signed up have been extremely busy.

Fifteen of these students from MCHS attended a seminar offered by the St. Clair County Health Department on October 17, 2003. This day-long seminar was jam-packed with group ice breakers, presentation suggestions and ideas, and solid reasons why it is so important to not ever start smoking.

With ideas still fresh in their minds, this county-wide event was followed up with a brainstorming session on November 6, 2003 with all MCHS T.A.T.U. participants to put together their presentations on the hazards of smoking to all 4th grade classrooms across the district.

Groups were chosen, ideas exchanged, and final plans were shared. Group advisor, Kathy Pizzo, along with Andy Kindt and Jenn Michaluk from the Health Department were on hand to help facilitate. Each T.A.T.U. member will get the opportunity to present at three different elementary schools twice before Christmas break.

Meanwhile during all this preparation, MCHS teacher, Michelle Kennedy asked if T.A.T.U. would consider doing a presentation on the hazards of smoking to her 9th grade health classes during her unit on smoking. Armed and ready (and a little nervous to be in from of their own peers) they took on this challenge on Monday, November 10, 2003! Three groups formed to cover general statistics, effects on the body, and how false cigarette advertisements are. After hearing the presentations the 9th graders were then divided into groups of two or three, given a sample cigarette/tobacco ad and asked to create a truthful ad. These freshmen worked very hard and produced some awesome and thought provoking, truthful ads. Upon completion of the posters, the entire T.A.T.U. group then judged them and awarded prizes to the first, second, and third place winners out of each class. The posters were then put up around the school to promote national Smoke-Out Day on November 20, 2003.

These students are taking a stand by being enthusiastic role models. They are making a large difference at MCHS and it gives the school something to be proud of.

Quiz Bowl

Quick Thinkers

To be a part of the Quiz Bowl team you have to be dedicated and willing to work. The team practices everyday at lunch. It takes a lot of work to be a competitive team. The teams are quizzed on all subjects varying from current events, to math, to history. The team has meets every Thursday. At each meet they face two other schools which contain three rounds each. There are four people on a panel for each team. Their matches are very similar to Jeopardy, where a question is asked and you buzz in with the answer.

The Marine City Quiz Bowl program consists of two teams. The Varsity, which is coached by Mr. Homberg, and the Junior Varsity, which is coached by Ms. Kerr. The team participates in the Blue Water League where they are one of eleven teams. The team carries around twenty members. The team has no set captains, but they alternate from match to match.

"Quiz Bowl offers the excitement of academic competition and the camaraderie of being on a team. Although we are not always successful in winning, we enjoyed the game and each other."

~ Mr. Homberg

"It was a great team with a lot of enthusiasm."

Computer Club

If you went to any of the Drama Club's plays this year, I'm sure you would have noticed the awesome special effects during the beginning and ending credits of the play. These effects were created by the Computer Club. Working closely with the head of the Drama Club, Mr. McCulloch, he was able to tell the members exactly what he wanted the graphics to do. After some hard work and long hours, the Computer Club was able to produce some awesome graphics making the Drama Club's plays the best in St. Clair County. Of course when the members of Computer Club get any free time, they enjoy a little friendly competition playing computer games over the schools network.

This year's Computer club advissor was Mrs. Coverdill. The computer club usually met twice per week, once at lunch and once after school. This year the main focus has been installing computer parts, installing and learning how to use new software, and working on the special effects for the Drama Club.

Every week the computer club learned about different computer parts. Then, after each member has mastered the functions of the new part, they get to install the new part, adding to their year long project of building a computer. In addition to installing new components to their computer, the members also learn about new software. They also play computer games using the projection units for life size gameboards. Keep it up guys, one of you could be the next Bill Gates.

Football Expect Victory

This year Coach Bob celebrated his 200th win. His coaching career began in 1974 and to date he has played 269 games winning 206. This was his 21st straight winning season and his 15th trip to the state playoffs. Currently MCHS holds the 9th longest winning streak in Michigan High School Football. Thanks for another great season!

The East China stadium filled up while hundreds of the Marine City football fans rumbled and screamed to the sound of the cannon going off. The 2003 football season had begun.

.....TRADITION.....

The excitement of Friday night games began at home against Lakeshore on August 28th with a shutout win. The guys faced their toughest games of the young season right away. The Clintondale came down to some great defense until the last two minutes of the fourth quarter when the Mariners stumbled. The Mariners were determined and worked hard to prepare for the next challenge, St. Clair. With a great team effort they defeated their rival by a convincing score. Next up in their three game challenge was the Marysville Vikings. The team gave a great effort but they lost the battle. Losing two games in the beginning of the season only affected the team in a good way. The team improved week by week and ended the season with a five game winning streak. Then they started their next season, districts.

The Mariners drew the Marysville Vikings for their first pre-district game and it was an exciting game for everyone. The team had another chance and some revenge from the last game against them. The dreary Saturday game ended up a celebration by the Mariners with a win over the Vikings. Next up was a disappointing loss to the Richmond Blue Devils, which ended the football season. The team ended with a great season and many good memories.

From defense to offense, Cullen Chartier intercepts the pass putting the offense in great field position.

Extra point-no problem. Andrew Kent sets the ball up for Ian Walker to for a good kick.

You can't mess up the number order of 2 and 3. Brett VanTiem and Mike Bradford double team tackle a Shorian.

#4 has some ups! Zach Malarney attempts to block the pass, what an effort.

With a sneaky hand off, #8 Jerry Wesley hands the ball off to #10 Larry Cummins.

Above: The blockers set #15 Andrew Kent up for a quick hand off to #33 Mike Parslow for another first down.

Below: With great blocks #22 Nathan LaParl uses his speed for another touchdown run.

The tradition continues with the opening of all home games; The Mariner football team running out of the tunnel.

There is no one that will get past this defense. The Mariner defense celebrates after another great play.

Above: With great coverage #1 Jon Kuzma, #38 Craig Lindke, and #14 Louie Letourneau take down a Warren Woods Tower player.

Below: #5 Cullen Chartier and #52 Jeff McPhee are at another tackle with help from the rest of the defense.

Tom Loewer, Brett VanTiem, Zach Malarney, Nathan LaParl, and Craig Lindke gave their best effort, dedication, and leadership to be this years captains.

The coach for Varsity cheerleading was Mrs. Burmann, and the assistant coach was Mrs. Nesbitt. The captains of this year's team were: Amber McLane, Katie Hilderbrand, and Cherise Soulliere. The cheerleading team has gymnastics every Monday for an hour in which they work on tumbling, and perfecting skills such as jumps. After the cheerleaders are finished with gymnastics they have an hour left to practice.

MCHS Cheerleaders have practice five days a week from 3-5:30, during that time they tumble on their gymnastics equipment that they just purchased this summer. They go over jumps at least five times each, then they go over their opening number until the coaches think it is just about perfect. Next they work on one legged stunts and pyramids, until every flyer and stunt group has it down just about perfect. Lastly, the girls conditioned doing crunches, push-ups, planks, and elbow leg lifts.

The Cheerleaders attend every Varsity football game no matter what the weather is like. They have team dinners once a week before the game where they have time to bond together. The cheerleaders make signs, and candy bags for the Varsity football team to pump them up, and they also cheer at the pep assemblies.

Hard work and dedication brought the J.V football team to a great season. The Mariners averaged 23 points a game while allowing opponents 20. Team leaders included Ryan Genshow, D.J McKellar, John Flasher, Aaron Herman Scott Chartier, David Steier, and Ian Eakins. The Mariners biggest victory was defeating St.Clair 24-22. The Mariner JV football team finished its season with a 4-5 record.

This years teams greatest accomplishments were their understanding of the commitment that it takes to be successful. They possessed intangibles like team chemistry and desire to always improve. With the positive attitude and work ethic the team displayed this year, expectations are high for this class in the future.

The JV team was coached by Mr. Letson, who felt the team was very talented. The team's hard work paid off with close games and a great defeat over St. Clair.

The 2003 Freshman Football team finished the year with a 3-5 record. The team started the 2003 season winning its first two games. However, the next five games ended in loses. The team was always very competitive and played hard in those games, only to lose a few close ones. The team finished the year with a thrilling come from behind win against Algonac. The team was down by 20 heading into the second half when it came back to score 21 unanswered points to win the game 21-20.

This years team showed their desire from week to week by never quitting and playing each game with a never say die attitude. The team continued to get better each week, which was evident in their play. They came to practice every day and proved that they were dedicated to the program. These players will be counted on to continue the proud tradition of Mariner football.

Their practices were after school from 3-5:30. The girls cheered for the football team at all of their home games and occasionally they would cheer at the girls basketball games.

During the summer the girls practiced hard and were dedicated the whole time. Before their season started they attended a Classic Camp at Alma College. This camp brought together the team. The team had a great year and will make great cheerleaders for the Varsity team next year.

The Freshman Cheerleading team was coached by Roch-elle Aprile this year. The cheerleaders had practice Monday through Thursday every week from three o'clock until around five. The cheerleaders practiced their stunting and jumps everyday until they felt comfortable with them. On Mondays the cheerleaders had a gymnastics coach come in for about an hour and help them perfect their jumps, and stunts. After the gymnastic coach left the cheerleaders practiced what they learned for another hour.

The Freshman cheerleaders cheer at all of the Freshman football games. The cheerleaders help make signs for all of the sport teams. Beside that, the cheerleaders cheer at all of the pep assemblies, and do a good job of getting the school pumped up for the big games.

And it opened up their eyes to the best season in school history. The boy's soccer team set three goals at a practice in late August. Their first goal was to beat St. Clair and bring home the Burn's Trophy. On September 3, they got their chance and made the most of it. For the first time in school history, they beat St. Clair in soccer and they brought home the Burn's trophy. Their second goal of the year was to win their league. The team went 6-3-1 in the league but it was enough to win it outright by one point over Lake Shore. They clinched their first league Championship ever with a 6-1 win over Warren Fitzgerald in Warren. The season went very well as the team finished 6-1-0 in non-league games, and finished 12-5-1 overall record. The team lost in districts to St. Clair with a score of 2-1, which spoiled their third goal for the year. The third goal was winning districts.

The captains for the season were Lukasz Czechak, Mike Becker, and Ryan Pizzo. The team was very close all season long. They scheduled team parties almost every weekend. These parties were held only on Friday nights at various houses, and we would watch a movie and eat pizza as a team. Lukasz Czechak led the team in scoring with 23 goals, followed by Phil Sobczak and then Ryan Pizzo. The team was led by a core of Seniors and all ten will be missed next year. The team did a fantastic job this season and proved that Marine City can have a championship soccer team.

The Lady Mariner Swim team got it together this year. With Janel Coppens as the new full time coach, the swimmers started practicing and conditioning two weeks prior to the season. Though right from the start the team faced some challenges. Despite the pool being unavailable to the swimmers during the summer, they still managed to get in the water to prepare for a fun season.

This year the team set individual goals to motivate themselves, many of which were achieved. Despite the Lady Mariner swim team being so young, the ladies continuously improved, achieving personal bests right from the start. Their huge defeat over Centerline opened their season with positive energy. The team put up an awesome fight against St. Clair, the girls really pushed themselves that night. They closed the season with a victory over Sterling Heights, and were ready for divisionals. The Lady Mariner swim team worked extremely hard in preparation for this big event, and finished in fifth place.

No bogies here!! The 2003 golf team had a very successful season. Practicing everyday after school at Rattle Run Golf Course, the Mariners only had one loss at home all season. Overall, they finished second in their league with a 6-5 record. They also finished seventh in the regional, which was played at St. Clair Country Club. Scott Firman, the team's captain, led the team. Also in the top six were Matt Dietlin, Brent Welser, Kyle Krueger, Alex Bassett, and Paul Gale. The whole team improved greatly throughout the season, and starting the season they were undefeated (5-0) before losing a heartbreaker to South Lake, who eventually ended up winning the league.

Mr. Parsons, in his second year as head coach, was very pleased with the season. "Everyone did a great job, and really improved," Parsons stated. A highlight of the season was a hole in one by Freshman Kyle Krueger. On the par three number five at Rattle Run, Kyle holed it. It was his first hole in one, and the only one of the season. Everyone did a great job this season!

EVERYDAY. From the middle of the summer the girls attended Macomb, Saginaw, and Adrian team camp. Throughout the long summer practices and their two weeks of practice before the first tip-off, the team worked extremely hard. The team came across some dilemmas at the beginning of the season with some key players. The team fought through them and the younger players stepped up.

After practicing for so long, it's always nice to come out and win the first game. One of the biggest victories of the season was right away against the cross town rival Cardinal Mooney. It was the way to get the season going and bring the team closer. Another big win was against another rival, Marysville. The ladies maintained their lead the entire game. Both of these were no-league games.

The four teams that were ranked highest in the league were Marine City, Lakeshore, Lakeview, and Lincoln. Each game was very close. The girls had a second chance to play each one of these teams, and they stepped up their game. Against the LAkeview Huskies, the girls fought for five quarters. The game went into double overtime and the Mariners stayed strong and won. This was their most exciting game of the year. The team ended the season with 11 wins and 10 losses. This put them in fourth place for their league.

The most exciting part of the season is districts. This was a new season for the girls. The Marine drew Marysville for their first pre-district game. With a disappointing loss, their season was over.

Mr. Leeman did a great job coaching and preparing the girls for every game. The Lady Mariners ended up with a winning season and some great memories.

The MCHS Junior Varsity girls basketball team had a very successful season, despite the loss of Deanna Rybarczyk, Kelly Kucharski, and Georgia Dewey to the varsity team. The best game of the season was the HUGE defeat over Clintondale (44-28). This game made the team realize what true potential they had.

Over the summer, the girls went to two camps. There they worked very hard. With dedication and talent, the MCHS JV team finished in the top of their league.

The team, coached by Mr. Daly, improved tremendously from the beginning of the season to the end of the season. The team was very close and they worked together as a group. With the positive energy they showed throughout the season, they will be ready for next years varsity squad.

Starting the season off, the team was very successful at the Saginaw Valley team camp. One of the biggest accomplishments that the girls made was beating one of our biggest rivals, St. Clair. The also achieved an exciting victory over Anchor Bay. The girls contributed a great team effort beating the Saints 35-30. Coach D'Hondt has done an excellent coaching job and preparing the girls for the next level.

It did not matter what kind of weather it was, the Girls' and Boys' Cross Country team was always trying their hardest. The team started practice in August, and when school started they had practice everyday after school until four. All of their hard work paid off when they had their first invitational at the East China park. At their own invitational the girls' placed 5th out of 16 teams and the boys placed 8th. After that the girls proved to be the best in their league once again by winning all of their league meets for the third straight year, and winning the M.A.C. gold championship. The girls' also won the divisional meet at Metro Beach. The girls' were coached by Coach Shagena who has also earned coach of the year for the third year in a row. The girls' also placed first at the Harbor Beach Invitational, and placed 3rd at the Muskrat invitational.

Captains for the girls' team this year were Jackie Gross, Jess Meldrum, Amanda Vintevoghel, and Alaina Korpai. The boys captain was Travis Grzelka. At the divisional meet, Jackie Gross, Jessica Meldrum, and Victoria Vintevoghel earned First Team All League honors. Earning Second Team All League Honors was Alaina Korpai. At the regional meet the girls' placed 8th, and Jackie Gross qualified for states, and tied for the school record with a time of 19:16.

Girls Varsity Tennis shined this year. Each girl showed great improvement individually, as well as working together to create a positive TEAM atmosphere throughout the season. Leading the girls, was coach, Carrie Rhodes. With the help of team co-captains, Junior Lacey Bassett, Junior, Julie Jandron, and Sophomore Michelle Schueneman the team learned how to work together and learn from one another.

Although it was a very young and inexperienced group of girls, they always strived to learn new things and work hard during practices, and matches. "Never give up" is a great phrase to express this Varsity team. Whether they were practicing, playing, or just hanging out at team dinners, everyone was very supportive and always willing to lend a hand. "Kudos" to the Girls Varsity Tennis Team!!! We look forward to the years to come.

Discipline and defense is how the boy's basketball team is successful. Being last years District Champs, many returning players were ready to do it again. Starting the season with a loss didn't stop the team from improving. Their potential and ability to play the game started to show in the victories after that. Some great victories were against Cousino where Ryan Barks hit a three point shot to win the game. At the end of the Warren Woods Tower game with four crucial seconds left, Zach Malarney tipped the ball in the basket for a win. Another outstanding game was against Anchor Bay. The team was down sixteen points and came back and won. Many years have gone by without getting a win against rival St.Clair. But the team defeated St.Clair. No matter what the score was the team always worked their hardest.

The team finished second in the MAC Gold league finished 16-5 overall. The team captains, Cullen Chartier, Kyle Pelzer, and Zach Malarney are the teams top three scorers on the team. Coach Glodich did a successful job coaching and has made Marine City Basketball awesome.

In post season play, the Mariner team beat Algonac but lost the next game in a close match-up with Cros-Lex. Overall, the season was a success on many points. The team became closer as a group, and made Marine City Basketball into a winning program that many people of all ages will enjoy for a long time.

Competitive No Fear Just Cheer!

"As their enthusiasm has increased and so has their scores. Each week we, as coaches, could definitely see a change as they worked hard to improve. Marine City is once again changing their style of cheering. The new style will include more gymnastics, punching their moves and a definite change of vocals. This team loves to stunt and I greatly enjoy watching them try new and exciting stunts. This group of girls has been a lot of fun to work with."

Putting football season and sideline cheer away, it was time to start another year of competitive cheer. This season was going to be a success and each girl on the squad knew that from the first day of practice. The team was led by captains Sara Bieth, Amber McLane, and Katie Wall, who each contributed to the squad in a special way. This was the last year for each of those girls to compete, seeing that they were seniors. Freshmen Katelyn Parslow and Justine Springborn were brought up from lower levels to add their special talents. Jessica Gisting, Dawn Hewelt, and Calla Maynard, who are all sophomores, were brought up for the same reason.

The competitive cheer team did well this season, placing at many of their Saturday competitions. The highlight of the season was when they won first place at the Bad Axe Competition and came back from fourth place in the third round. At the Marine City Invitational, the girls received second place, losing only by .25 points to Monroe Jefferson. Another competition where the girls did exceptionally well was the Armada Invitational. They took Third Place and performed well throughout all three rounds.

The girls have really improved throughout the season. Their gymnastic skills have been taken to the next level with high expectations from coaches, each other and their fans. Each of the girls helped rally the rest of their classmates to boost the school spirit!

AND THEY SCORE! That is how the Junior Varsity team carried out their season. They started out the season with a victory over one of their biggest rivals, Marysville. The Junior Varsity team was coached by Mr. Daly and the group had a great season. These players worked extra hard in practice, at camp, as well as their games. The team won a majority of the games and the few games they lost were extremely close and put up a great fight. There was a nail biting overtime loss against Warren Woods Tower that showed the determination from each of these players. Mr. Daly was always proud of the team and knew they had what it took to be a successful team.

The players had a huge victory over district rival, St. Clair. This win jump-started the season with confidence and motivation. This JV team always showed the dedication and the desire to bring home wins. The players had a great season and we can expect great accomplishments from them in the future. They ended with awesome wins and a great attitude.

The buzzer sounds and the freshmen team won their first game of the season. This victory against Marysville brought the young team together with confidence. Marcus Sadlowski, who was a former Mariner basketball player himself, coached the freshmen team. The team struggled with a few of their first games throughout the season. During the season they learned that they needed to work together to be a successful freshmen team. This team of players showed a great deal of effort and improvement. The loss of one of the team's main guards due to an injury was a disadvantage to the team. The players as well as the coach showed dedication and never gave up. It was a tough season for the team, but each player showed confidence and willingness to win.

This group went up against some tough teams this season. The team had a huge victory over South Lake. This win boosted the players confidence and proved to everyone that they had what it took to bring home a win. The team had fun and enjoyed the season.

What is competitive cheer? "It's dedicated girls going on the floor at competitions and putting their all into a routine to show pride in their school," explains Lindsay Ostin. This year the J.V. and freshman cheer teams combined together to form one dedicated group of girls. These girls competed in competitions over the weekends, cheered at the J.V. boy's basketball games twice a week, and had three hour practices after school.

This year's cheer squad had many memorable experiences. A memorable experience for Shannon McPherson was "When we had to do our quarter cheer for round three, stunting, which has no stunts in it at all for the MC Invitational." Most of the girls would describe their season as memorable. Tryouts, first experiences at summer camps, the first time they competed at home, and just showing themselves that they could do things they never thought they could do.

All together the girl's season was full of hard work and dedication at competitions, games, and practice. Most importantly, it was full of fun and memories.

The Mariner Wrestling team had a very successful season. They had a young team starting seven first year wrestlers. The team wrestled every day after school until around 5:30. The Mariners competed in the tough MAC Gold Conference, where they finished strong.

A highlight of the season was placing third at the Marine City Invitational after losing a close match to Port Huron High by two points. The whole team wrestled hard and came up short to a good Port Huron team. Another high point of the year was Paul Gale placing fourth at the District meet to make him the lone qualifier for the regional tournament.

A wrestling match consists of 14 matches, one for every weight class. Each match is six minutes long. This makes wrestling one of the toughest high school sports. The season also may span to five months, requiring a lot of hard work and dedication.

The team's captains were Senior James Gale of 140 lbs and Junior John Griffith at 135 lbs. Other standouts were Junior Fred Tomaszewski at 171 lbs., Sophomore Paul Gale at 103 lbs., and Sophomore Allen Eiwert at the 112 lb. weight class. The team was coached by Mr. Bladow and Ralph Thibodeau, and was often assisted by T.J. Schindler.

Volleyball is all about teamwork. On and off the court the girls developed the sense of "team". In their first Quad they started strong and beat all three teams. The first game against L'anse Creuse, last year's league champs, was an important game. Although not finishing the way they would have liked, there was still a second chance. In the Luthern East Tournament the girls took a second, which gave them some more confidence.

A turning point in the season was playing for the second time rival, St. Clair. The team proved they have improved. Losing to St. Clair in two quick games wasn't anything like the next time the two teams met. A hard fought effort left the girls disappointed with the loss but ready to go and win a game. They went a step up and reached their goal of crucial practices and it started to pay off with some wins. With all the work the team also faced some tough competition at the U of M tournament right before Districts. Although, with all the work, the girls didn't get the win at Districts against St. Clair.

The team and volleyball program improved tremendously, and Coach Griffor and Coach Cartwright did an extremely good job with the team. Leigh Christie and Natasha Faucher were the team captains. Great Season! And hopefully next year the program will keep improving.

The Marine City JV Volleyball team encountered a season of fun and challenges this year. After losing four players to the varsity team, the ladies gladly welcomed three players up from the freshmen squad. The arrival of these ladies helped out a lot during the season. During the season the ladies showed great team unity and were there for each other the entire year. The ladies had many great victories during the year but none greater than the wins against St. Clair. The bitter rivalry ended wonderfully for the Mariners as the team beat the Saints both times they played them during the season. This was a great sign because next year Varsity will be relying on these same ladies to do it again at a higher level.

The first win against the Saints propelled them to a great showing in the rest of their games. The team could all agree that without that huge win in the middle of the season that they wouldn't of had such a great time the second half of the season. The ladies also did very well in their tournaments during the season and ended their season off with a couple of great wins.

The Freshmen Volleyball team made the best out of a season of ups and downs. The Freshmen team tried their hardest everytime they stepped on the court. They played many great teams and were not intimidated by anyone. At the beginning of the year the ladies lost a couple of girls to the Junior Varsity team but it didn't affect the morale a bit.

The girls united to finish off the season with a couple of great victories. The ladies were lead by first year coach, Nikki Stephen. The year was a huge success for her as she had a great time teaching and coaching these young ladies. Her goal was for them to have fun, not just in the games twice a week, but have fun at practice each and every night. The girls proved to their coach and the rest of the program that they are in for the long run, and are proud to represent Marine City Volleyball.

The future looks great from what the ladies showed the coaches this year. They will all be great assets in the future and after a season like this one, the future looks bright.

Swimmers take your mark...Go! The Marine City Boys Swim and Dive Team got off to a great start this season. They made a big splash at their first meet versus Anchor Bay, setting a winning tone for the remainder of the season. Led by their dedicated coaches, Mike Miller and Chuck Daniels, and captains worked hard as a team, and they gave it their all this season. They had many new-coming swimmers join the pack this year, a whole new group of guys that brought a unique mix of things into the water. Needless to say it was a very eventful season. Everyone performed to their highest potential in everything they did, which proved to be to our advantage. During the Marine City versus L'anse Creuse North swim meet a new record was set for the Boy's 200 yard freestyle relay. Our team captains, Jonathan Kane, Lukasz Czechak, Scott Firman, and Mike Kasper led the way with a time of one minute and 38 seconds. They are confident that they will beat this time even further as their season comes to a close. We will look forward to that.

Another meet that had been long anticipated by the team was the one in which our men would go up against our rivals, the St. Clair Saints. As always it's usually a very high intensity match. However, this season it was even more memorable, with the rival between teams growing, as the dualing coaches were father and daughter. Fortunately, Marine City came out on top, and our Mariner pride prevails.

BRANDON GEIB

Brandon,
You have worked very hard to get where you are today. Never did you quit when things became too hard. You kept on going getting smarter and more determined with every challenge you faced. You have turned out to be a wonderful young man and we are extremely proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Rosemarie Tucker

Rosemarie,

It seems like just yesterday you were in kindergarten. We have watched you grow into the beautiful girl we know. We are so very proud of you. You have worked very hard, and it is this hard work and determination that will carry you through.

All our love,

Dad, Mom, Christina, Tricia, & Travis

Adrienne Elizabeth Gisting

Congratulations on all your achievements so far, and our best wishes and all our support is with you for your future. Your strong will, determination, and tenacity are your finest assets, and will guide you through rough roads. Patience, understanding, and compassion will make everyday easier. With these, there shouldn't be anything you can't accomplish.

We will always be there for you, Beanie. We are so proud of you.

All our love,

Big Joe, Mom, Jessica, Joey and Crystal

Stacey Stevens

Stacey,

You have brought us so much joy over the years. We are so proud of the young woman you've become. We wish you all the happiness and success in whatever your future holds. Congratulations!

*Love you,
Mom, Dad, Brian, and Jeremy*

Eric Moody

Eric,

You have brought such happiness to our lives. It just seems like yesterday you were that little boy with the belly laugh, always making us smile, and you still do.

We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. What a wonderful young man you have become.

Thank you for all the great memories. Stay as happy as you are, whatever you do. Good Luck. Always know how much we love you.

*Love You More, Always!

Michael Kasper

From the boy who proudly dressed himself in psychedelic clothes and clip on ties, to a young man that still continues to impress us with all of your strides and achievements. You've gone far beyond what we ever imagined. We're so proud!

*We Love You,
Mom and Bill*

Eric Moody

Dear Eric,

Over the years, I've had so many wonderful memories with you and I am looking forward to all the memories to come. You are a wonderful person always wanting to make others happy, and always with a smile on your face. I love you so much and with whatever happens I always will. Keep on smiling!

*Love,
Poop, AKA Stacey*

Jessica Gadawski

Dear Jessica~

Your achievements have made us extremely proud, and you have created so many happy, wonderful memories for our family!

From the moment you entered this world, you have had a strong, independent, ambitious, and fun-loving personality. You have always been determined to be the best at anything you try, and you enjoy life to the fullest. We know that these qualities will guide you in your future and help you succeed in life.

Never be afraid to face challenges, or make mistakes while working toward your goals. Remember to work hard, be happy, and keep that "belly-gut" laugh that we love so much.

Our love and support will be with you always! Congratulations, and enjoy this next chapter in your life! "Shoot for the moon: even if you miss, you'll land among the stars".

We love you! Dad and Mom

Hey Jess!

May the wind always be at your back, and the sun upon your face, and let the wings of destiny carry you to dance among the stars!

Love, Todd

*Used to be our little girl with pigtails, now your dreams are setting sail.
 So much time has gone past, and you've grown up so fast.
 There was a time you could do almost nothing on your own.
 Your character, personality even your smile has grown.
 Soon you'll be finding your way, our little girl you'll always stay.
 Don't be scared to follow your dreams, always let yourself be seen
 To yourself be forever true, we're all so proud of you.*

Brent Cahill

Congratulations Brent!!

Dear Brent,

On August 11, 1986 our lives were filled with joy. We were blessed with you. We are so very proud of all that you stand for and all that you are. We wish you a lifetime of happiness. We will always be here for you. We love you with all our hearts.

*Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Kelli and Blake*

Katie Verstraete

Dear Katie,

From a smiling baby to an outgoing child. You brought us love, joy and happiness in our hearts and our lives. You've grown so quickly into a beautiful confident, intelligent young lady. Live your dreams, set your goals, the future is yours to behold.

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Emilie, and Sandy*

Courtney Manter

Dear Courtney,
Thank God it's over. You will be the best Garbage woman ever. The parking cones and the curb by Louie's will no longer cringe when they see "CMANTER" coming.

Good luck at Central and study hard. Otherwise you may find yourself living in a van down by the river. -All kidding aside- We wish you only the best of all life offers. Your charm, wit, and brains will take you anywhere you want to go. We love you and couldn't be prouder.

Love,
Mom and Paul

Courtney,
Congratulfrigation! Peace and Quiet shall reign through out the house. We've been through a lot. Like when you threw a plastic horseshoe at our babysitter and going up the snowbank by Louie's. I'll never forget the tidal wave of snow that flew over the Car. I hope you have a good time at CMU and can look back at your high school years and laugh.
Love,

Time passes so quickly. Yesterday you started school, so shy and unsure. Today you are graduating with the world at your feet. You've grown so much, from the shy little girl to the competent person you are now. Follow your dreams. Don't let anything stand in your way. You've come a long way. We always knew you would.

*Love,
Mom, Dad, and Poo*

Shawna Lynn Nylund

One of the happiest moments of my life was the day you were born. It seems like only yesterday I was putting you on the bus for your first day of school. Now you're a beautiful young woman graduating from high school.

You will encounter many obstacles and challenges in the next phase of your life, but with hard work and determination you will achieve your dream. Never give up on that dream.

I wish for you a life filled with love, good friends, much laughter, health, and happiness.

I'm proud of you and want only the very best for you. Never forget that I love you!!!

Kelly Zohr

Dear Kelly,
 Thank you for teaching me wrong from right,
 For helping me keep my dreams in sight,
 For not letting obstacles keep me down,
 And for creating a smile from my frown.
 For saying that you care about me,
 And for showing how special love can be,
 For wiping my tears when I'm feeling sad,
 And for calming me down when I tend to get mad.
 For helping others with the good that you do,
 And for teaching me to help others too.
 For hugging me when I'm feeling blue,
 And whispering into my ear "I love you".
 Thank you, Kelly, for all that you do,
 The world is a better place because of you.

May your future be as bright as your past!

Tarah Stewart

Tarah,

There are thousands of beautiful words and flowery phrases I could use to describe you, but none of them would do you justice. You are beyond words. The best I can do is tell you how you have changed our lives.

All children require food, shelter, love, and stability. You raised the bar for us as parents. You demanded energy, intelligence, uncompromising support, an abundance of affection, wit, unending patience and unlimited time. You have not only made us better parents, but better people. We thank you for this.

Don't ever doubt yourself...we never do.

Nicole Lee Smith

Nikki Lee,

You have compassion for others, a heart made of pure gold
You're mature beyond your years, you're determined and bold
You are responsible and resourceful, never placing anything on hold
Except on those mornings when you hurried...and slightly cold
I am in complete awe of you, my sweet Nicole.

You're only in high school, yet earning credits towards college
Going to assist at the hospital, absorbing enormous amounts of knowledge
Your GPA has been strong and solid, better yet
Your MEAP scores are going to help mommy...pay for college.

Your tall and lean...with legs like a vine, teeth so perfect, a smile so divine
A green-eyed blonde, Ohh...how your daddy does whine
You are one beautiful woman, Nicole, I thank God that your mine.

I do not wish for you fame or wealth, I wish for you a child in perfect health
You have been my greatest joy, my happiness, my life
I can't wait to see your family
Your going to make a wonderful mommy and wife.

When thinking of you, pure love is what I feel
When I speak of you, people roll their eyes, "that child can't possibly be real"
They ask me..."what did you do" and is what I say of you, really true?
I raise my head and hold it high, I say with such enormous pride
My daughter Nicole is not only smart and pretty
She'll make you laugh, she is also quite witty.

I could write of you all day long, my feelings for you so very strong
I must admit, I only once was wrong, I did find out about "bil 'a' bong"
That won't last, it won't be long, you'll be all grown up
My baby will be gone.

Wherever you end up, near or far
Mom will forever carry you in her heart
I will always have faith in you, I have from the start
Be careful Nicole, you're carrying my heart.

Mandy Mazur

It goes without saying how proud we are of you and all that you have accomplished. You have grown from our little tiny baby girl (yeah right-10 lbs. 4 oz.) to a beautiful and vibrant young lady. If you remember all that we have instilled in you, you will definitely make good choices and certainly achieve your goals. Our wish for you is that you never give up on your dreams and that you remain true to yourself. You will be always our little girl, panda bear, and we will always be here for you. The one thing we want you to take with you as you go to college is "Here it comes, Mandy, give it all you got." Oh yeah, one last thing-do not call collect.

Love you, Mom, Dad and Nick

Success is a Door You Walk Through

You must move toward success,
it doesn't come to you.

The golden opportunity you're seeking lies within you.

It's not in your surroundings.

It's not in luck or chance, or the help of others.

It's in you alone.

Opportunities are all around you.

You can develop them if you apply persistence to your possibilities.

If the door of opportunity appears closed, just keep knocking on it, and keep knocking on it until it opens.

Be an opener of doors.

It seems like only yesterday you left for school for the first time.
Now it is twelve short years later and you are a young woman, ready to experience life on your own.

Life is made up of many first times:
The first time you jumped in the water,
The first time you had to share with your little brother,
Your first car, first job, first love.
You were even the first daughter and grandchild of our family.

In a few short months, you will be going off to college
And it will be another first time.
So continue on with your life making us proud of the Strong, beautiful, unique person you are!!!

We love you,
Mom, Ken and Bob

Having you for a daughter has been a joy and quite adventurous at times. I've watched you as you've taken all the lessons life has brought you and made them into something all your own. You are strong, smart, and caring. Uniquely you are your own person unlike anyone this world has ever seen or known. When I think of you, or tell someone you are my daughter I feel so proud of you and how you live your life. You have grown to be a beautiful woman. Whatever you can do, or dream, you can begin it! Boldness has genius, power and magic in it.

Love,

You have always been my best friend. I guess it just comes natural being stuck together all these years; You know the weekends at Dad's, or during the week at Mom's. Now that I am leaving always keep a place of my heart close to yours. And always be tough and don't give up.

Your big brother Robert

To my precious blue eyed Katie, with all my heart you know how much I love you. I am very proud of you. The goals you have set for yourself were high ones, and you have met each one. Soon you will be going on a new path in your young life journey. You will make the right choices and never forget the day you gave your heart to Jesus. For He will never leave you. When things get hard, get your bible and read Proverbs 3, 5-6

Loving you always,
Your Grandma

Jennilee Lomerson

Congratulations, Jennilee!
We are very proud of you. You are a kind and gentle person, we are very blessed to have such a wonderful daughter. Always believe in yourself and you can accomplish anything. May your road to success be a happy one! Always stand proud, for you are truly the pride and joy of our lives!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jamilee, Brandon and Chris

Bradley R. Maggetti

Brad,

You have an amazing ability to do ordinary things in an extraordinary way.

Thank you for the priviledge of going along to the places your journey has taken you. To watch in awe as you light up the world with a heart that is so big, a mind that is so open, and a spirit that is so free. You never cease to amaze us.

May you always

Have health, hope, and happiness

Sing like nobody's listening

Love like you'll never be hurt

Take time to care for and love yourself

Follow your dreams

and

Don't ever forget...even for a moment...how very special you are.

We are so proud of you.

We love you son,

Mom & Dad

Thomas J!

Congratulations! Remember to work hard, play hard and have fun. I want to thank you for always looking after me and being there. I'm glad I have you as a brother. I don't know what I'd do without ya!

Love,
Your lil' Sister

TOM KAUFMAN

Tommy!
Congratulations!
We are so proud of you. We love you and the person you have become.

You mean so much to us!
Good luck in the future!
Love always,
Mom & Dad

Rich Toles

Watching your baby boy turn into such a fine young man is one of life's greatest rewards that only a parent can really appreciate. Each day you fill our hearts with joy and are such a big part of our happiness. You continue to make us proud with your positive attitude and hard work. Your accomplishments are many, and something you should also be proud of. Continue on into your adult life with the same and you will succeed. Thank you for making us so proud of you.

We love you,

Dad, Carol, George, Andrew and Sabrina

Cullen Todd Chartier

Dear Cullen,
It's been 17 years of pure pleasure watching you and coaching you at what you do best, "giving it your all." People underestimate size, when it's really what's in the heart that counts, and you've got one of the biggest ones!

Thanks for being you with your big smile. Take on life like the first 17 years and everything is possible. You are a true blessing to us!!!!!!

Love Ya,
Dad & Mom

We Remember

Looking back on the past four years
And the steps we've taken along the way
Our story began so long ago
Though it seems like only yesterday.
Eyes fixed on the floor,
Quivering knees, a sweaty palm,
We took our first steps through the door
Desperately trying to stay calm.
We were just uneasy Freshmen
All unsure of where we fit in,
But time went by and things happened.
We let the memories sink in.
We remember the Friday night games,
Running out of the rain.
The friendships we've endured,
Through the smiles and the pain.
We remember staying up late,
All we'd do was talk.
The classrooms we've slept in,
The halls that we've walked.
We remember getting all dressed up
On those fancy, carefree nights,
And dancing till my feet hurt
Beneath the glow of dim lights.
We remember the new friends I've made,
And the old ones I've kept
The jokes we found funny,
And the tears that we've wept.
We remember passing faces in the hall
The new and the old
The teachers who taught us
And the lessons they've told.
We remember gathering together
All piled into the stands,
And crying out our victories
Throwing up all our hands.
We remember the exchange of bad pictures
And the signing of books,
Anxiously flipping through memories
With reminiscent looks.
We remember the secrets we've shared
Through so many years
And arguments forgotten
Knowing the end of this chapter soon nears.
And when that day finally comes
And it's our time at last
I hope we always remember where we came from
When these days have all passed.
Prepared for the future,
And ready for so much more
Hoping we embrace the way that we were
As the class of 2004.
